TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT:

Fellow law enforcement,

The Mid-Atlantic Association of Women in Law Enforcement's 2019 Annual Training Conference will be held in the beautiful Pocono Mountains in Monroe County, Pennsylvania, from April 7, 2019 to April 11, 2019. This year our conference theme is "Strength, Loyalty and Family: The Stepping Stones for Success". The conference will be held at Camelback Resort in Tannersville, PA.

The Mid-Atlantic Association of Women in Law Enforcement (MAAWLE) is comprised of professionals promoting women in law enforcement from Pennsylvania, Delaware, District of Columbia, Maryland, New Jersey, and Virginia. MAAWLE is an affiliate of the International Association of Women Police. The annual training conference provides members the opportunity to develop leadership skills, professional development, contemporary training, and networking. Additionally, the organization provides educational scholarships to advance the knowledge, skills, and abilities of law enforcement officers in the Mid-Atlantic region.

Traditionally, MAAWLE conferences have a variety of classes for attendees to choose from. The 2019 conference committee is planning a variety of courses for all law enforcement officers from patrol to investigator and courses for command staff and leadership.

Training at the MAAWLE conference is geared for any level police officer. There will be various courses specifically designed for patrol officers, detectives, tactical officers and K9 officers. Training courses involving leadership, mentorship and preparing for promotion will also be offered.

In addition to classroom training, MAAWLE hosts "Tactical Tuesday" where officers are able to participate in hands on training. The 2019 Tactical Tuesday will be off-site instructed by the Pennsylvania State Police Special Emergency Response (SERT) Team and will consist of simunitions and active shooter training.

The MAAWLE Awards Ceremony and luncheon will be held on Monday April 8th, 2019. Class A Uniform or business attire is required. Please visit www.maawle.org/awards to view the awards and nominate a colleague or friend.

The 2019 Conference Committee is also planning a wide variety of networking events and opportunities for attendees. There will be a welcome reception on Sunday evening at the conference location as well as other networking events at local businesses throughout the week. Events such as these provide officers with opportunity to meet and socialize with other female officers throughout the ranks of law enforcement all over the mid-Atlantic region.

We hope that you will attend our 33rd Annual Training Conference not only for the excellent training opportunities but also for the chance to network and meet fellow female law enforcement officers throughout the mid-Atlantic region.

Registration is now open. Your conference fee includes breakfast and lunch daily, two dinners and transportation to all off site events.

On behalf of the conference committee, we extend our heartfelt thanks and gratitude for your support of the Mid-Atlantic Association of Women in Law Enforcement. We look forward to seeing you in April!
